SPECIAL CAMP REPORT

28 December, 2015 to 03 January, 2016

A/P: Kondiwade Tal: Wadgaon Maval Dist: Pune

No. of NSS volunteers: 75

As more than 50% of India resides in villages, so therefore, for the development of the nation, we must start with the development of the rural areas. With this moto, the NSS department of Bharati Vidyapeeth's college of engineering for Women had organized a 7 days special camp at KONDIWADE, from 28th December, 2015 to 3rd January, 2016, in association with Savitribai Phule Pune University.

The camp was inaugurated by Shri. Somnath Landge, Mrs. Radhika Ingale (Sarpanch), Principal Dr. D. S. Bilgi, Staff Members , NSS volunteers , members of gram panchayat & residents of the village. Then the NSS volunteers started with the Gram survey in order to know the needs of the village & the residents there.

Next day started with a very informative lecture by former NSS volunteer Miss. Kritika Surya on how the National Social Service scheme in full of opportunities for the volunteers and how NSS provides a platform for the student to focus on self as well as social development. After that many competitions for the children of Kondiwade were held by the volunteers such as- essay writing, drawing, rangoli.etc. The volunteers carried out a rally on the issues of women empowerment. Free health check up camp in association with NSS volunteers of Sinhgad Institute of Pharmacy, Narhe, played a great role in helping the peasants. This health check up included haemoglobin, blood pressure, blood group & BMI check up. Around 150 people got benefited by this camp.

The following day, volunteers did yoga in the morning under the guidance of Yogacharya Amol Patil and this was followed by another two lectures which were on parenting guidelines conducted by Prof Savita Atul Itkarkar.

There were also some street plays performed by the NSS volunteers with respect to every guest lecture in order to make the villagers understand the need of awareness about the particular lecture in real life.

On Thursday, a lecture on communication skills was delivered by Dr. Deepali Godse. The volunteers then welcomed the new year with a celebration.

Volunteers on the first day of new year were given a precious guidance on career planning and management by Prof. Vijay Navale which was followed by a group discussion amongst the volunteers on the current and important issues bothering the world. A visit to the local rose factory was paid by the volunteers along with the staff. In the evening, a program of home minister which was nothing but a haldi kumkum ceremony was organised for the ladies of the village.

On the last evening, a gathering was carried out which gave a wide platform to the children of the village as well as the NSS volunteers to bring out their talents in the field of acting, dancing, singing & many more. People from & around Kondiwade enjoyed the evening.

At the same day, a lecture on consumer rights and a lecture on cleanliness and sanitation both were conducted by the NSS volunteers.

Thus with the support of our honorable Principal Dr. D. S. Bilgi, NSS program officers Prof. Savita Itkarkar & Prof. Sonali Kadam, Teaching & non-teaching Staff Members, NSS volunteers & the villagers, the camp came to a successful ending on 5th January, 2015.

Activity-Karuna(Animal Adoption)

It felt great to adopt two white tigers named Priydarshani and Jahangir at Katraj Zoo. Its a very good opportunity given to all of us to be responsible towards nature and wild life. I request everyone to adopt any animal and feel proud to be a parent of wild life animal on very special day of your life .And share your experience....!!
Our activity " Karuna" held at zoo was one of the memorable moments in our life. Also the street play "Nishbda-Awaj Muk Pranyancha" based on concept of save wildlife had an awesome response of all visitors at Zoo. This was all possible only because of NSS and efforts of our Program Officer Prof. Savita Itkarkar. Thank you all....!!

Few takers for animal adoption

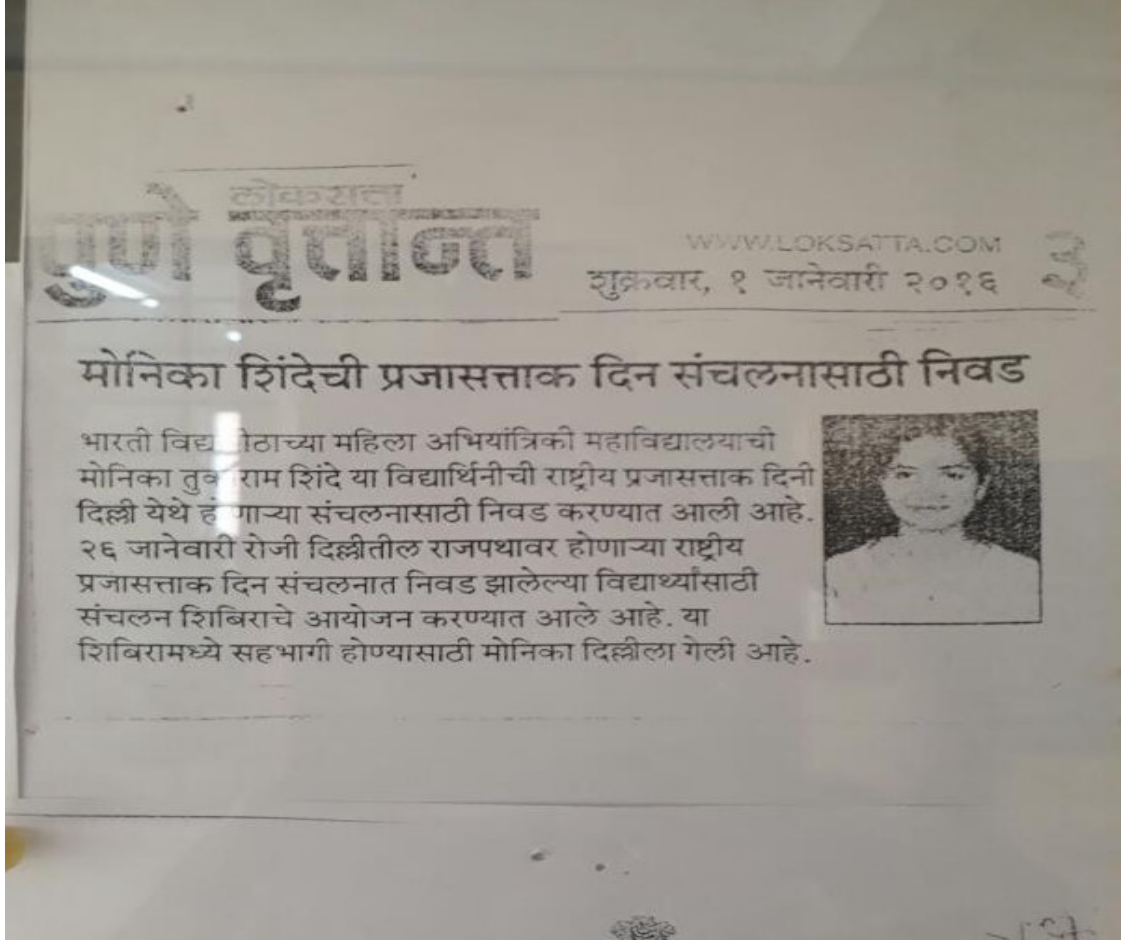

Many donors back out as authorities do not...
